Never Forget

I'm over, I'm over, I'm over it.
Smiling on the outside, you think you know.
Pretend it's all ok, make him never forget.
Forget he could be alone...allowed to feel.
Want to turn back time.

You think I know but I'll never forget.
Smiling on the outside, just play along.
Why does one do this; make him never forget.
Forget he could be alone, just think about that...just think about it.
I'm over, I'm over, I'm over it...
You think I know, but I'll never forget.

Take It All Off

You follow me round only to find something bright and new
You follow me round only to put your hands where they don't belong
And you know all that you're taught and that I'm not for sale
Rip me apart till nothing left but a mere soul.

All I want to say
Will you come my way
All I want to say
Rip me apart today.

And I know what's on your mind
I got a feeling you know what's on mine
Well I understand how you feel but you don't know what she goes through
I am told that everyone is on the menu but all cannot afford
Can you guess what I'll say, maybe that you are poor.

Darrin

Your heart rate drops
You know you're dying inside
Now you think about your way out
You know you need a way out

And then about all the words that you never said, you never,
Remember all those you left for dead.

It's all put together in your mind.
No looking back. No looking behind.

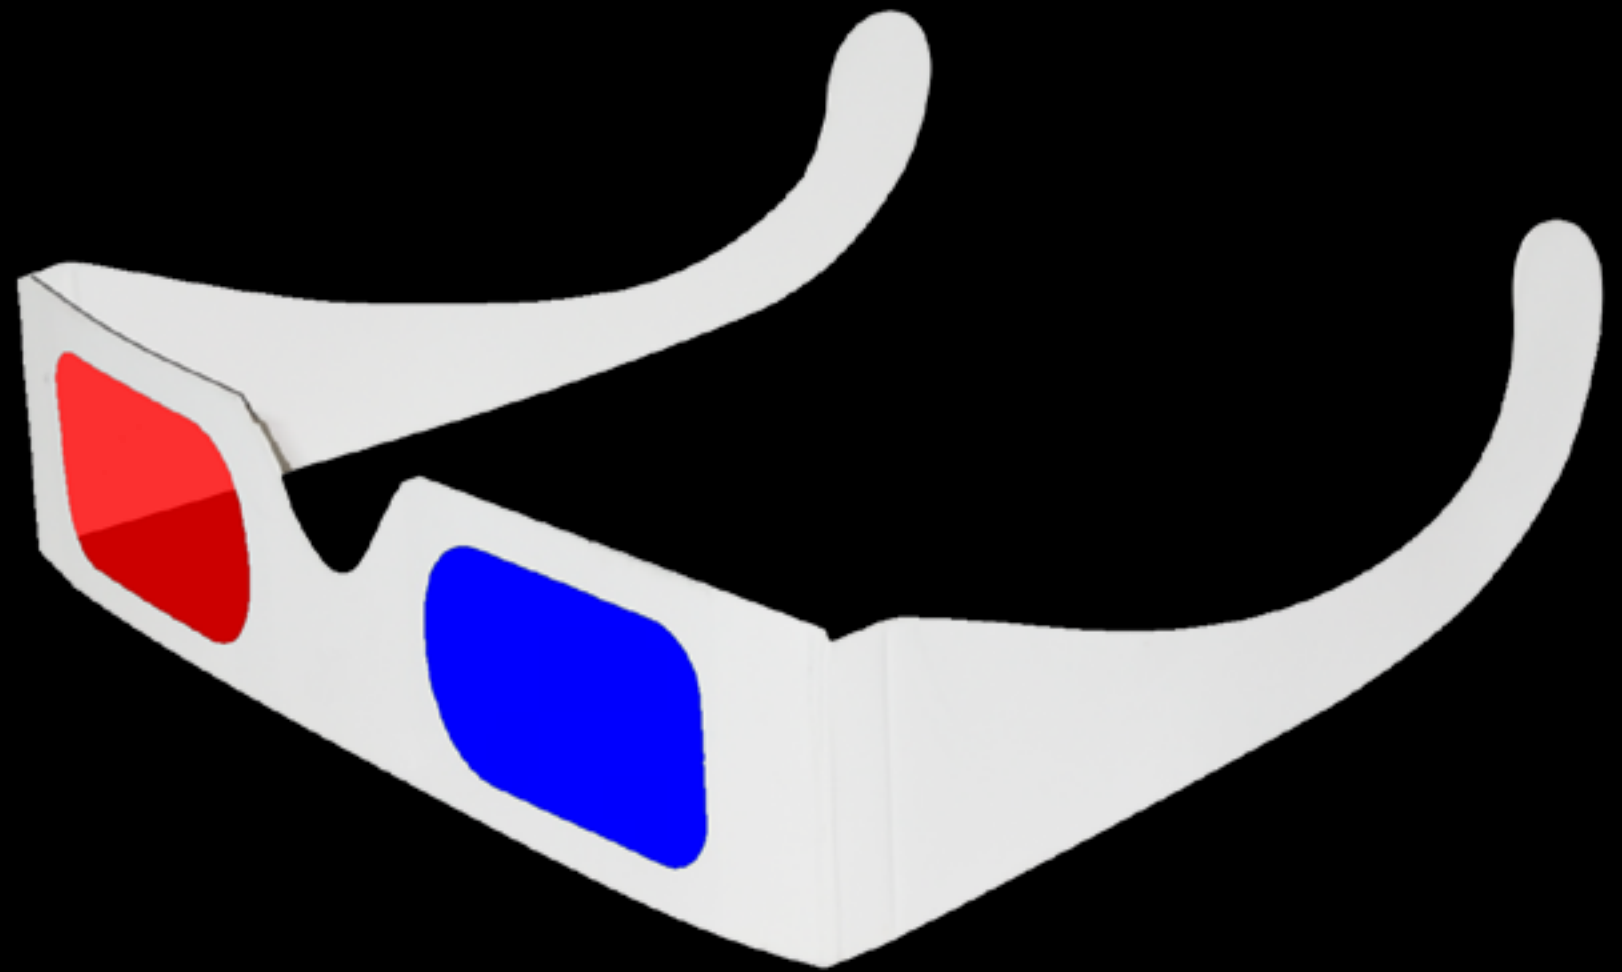

And something is missing
Are you forgetting that you miss me?
Now you think about your way out
You know there is no way out

Next To You

Standing there like that
How could you say no
You see I'm in a vulnerable place here
And I know that you can't wait any longer
Slowly peel one sleeve off

You put your arms aside and your hips up
Don't pay attention to the noise above
Steady like the sea you are over me
Don't stop the pace I feel your heart race
Stare in your eyes just to let you know
But I know you know 'cause my face 'aglow
And you watch the chill travel through
Still can't believe I am next to you

Quick go back to that place, felt just right
I want to know what it feels like for you. Let's just start again.
All this time I waited for you
I want to feel you again.

Simple Things

I admit that you do it better
Tell me do you feel better
Nothing tells me that it is never Against something so sweet, it's expensive

Sometimes I say things you don't like
Can you blame me, I am so honest
I wish I had all expenses paid for
Simple things don't come to easy

It reminds me of the time you used to...
What was I thinking you never did anything at all.

Sometime I say things you don't like
Can you blame me, I am so honest
I wish I had all expenses paid for
Simple things don't come to easy
Well I remember that intense stare you had
I want it back, fat free.
And it's glam free it'll set you free
I wish I had all expenses paid for.

Show Me A Time

You think that things will change on their own
And there is time to spare
Where did we go wrong again?
Let the disappointment break the fall
I am the person who you thought I was
I did exactly what you thought I would do

Show me a time when it ends
Forget about the day that went wrong
I'd like to spend some time
Rely on what I am
Decide on what I'll do I'd rather be alone than with you

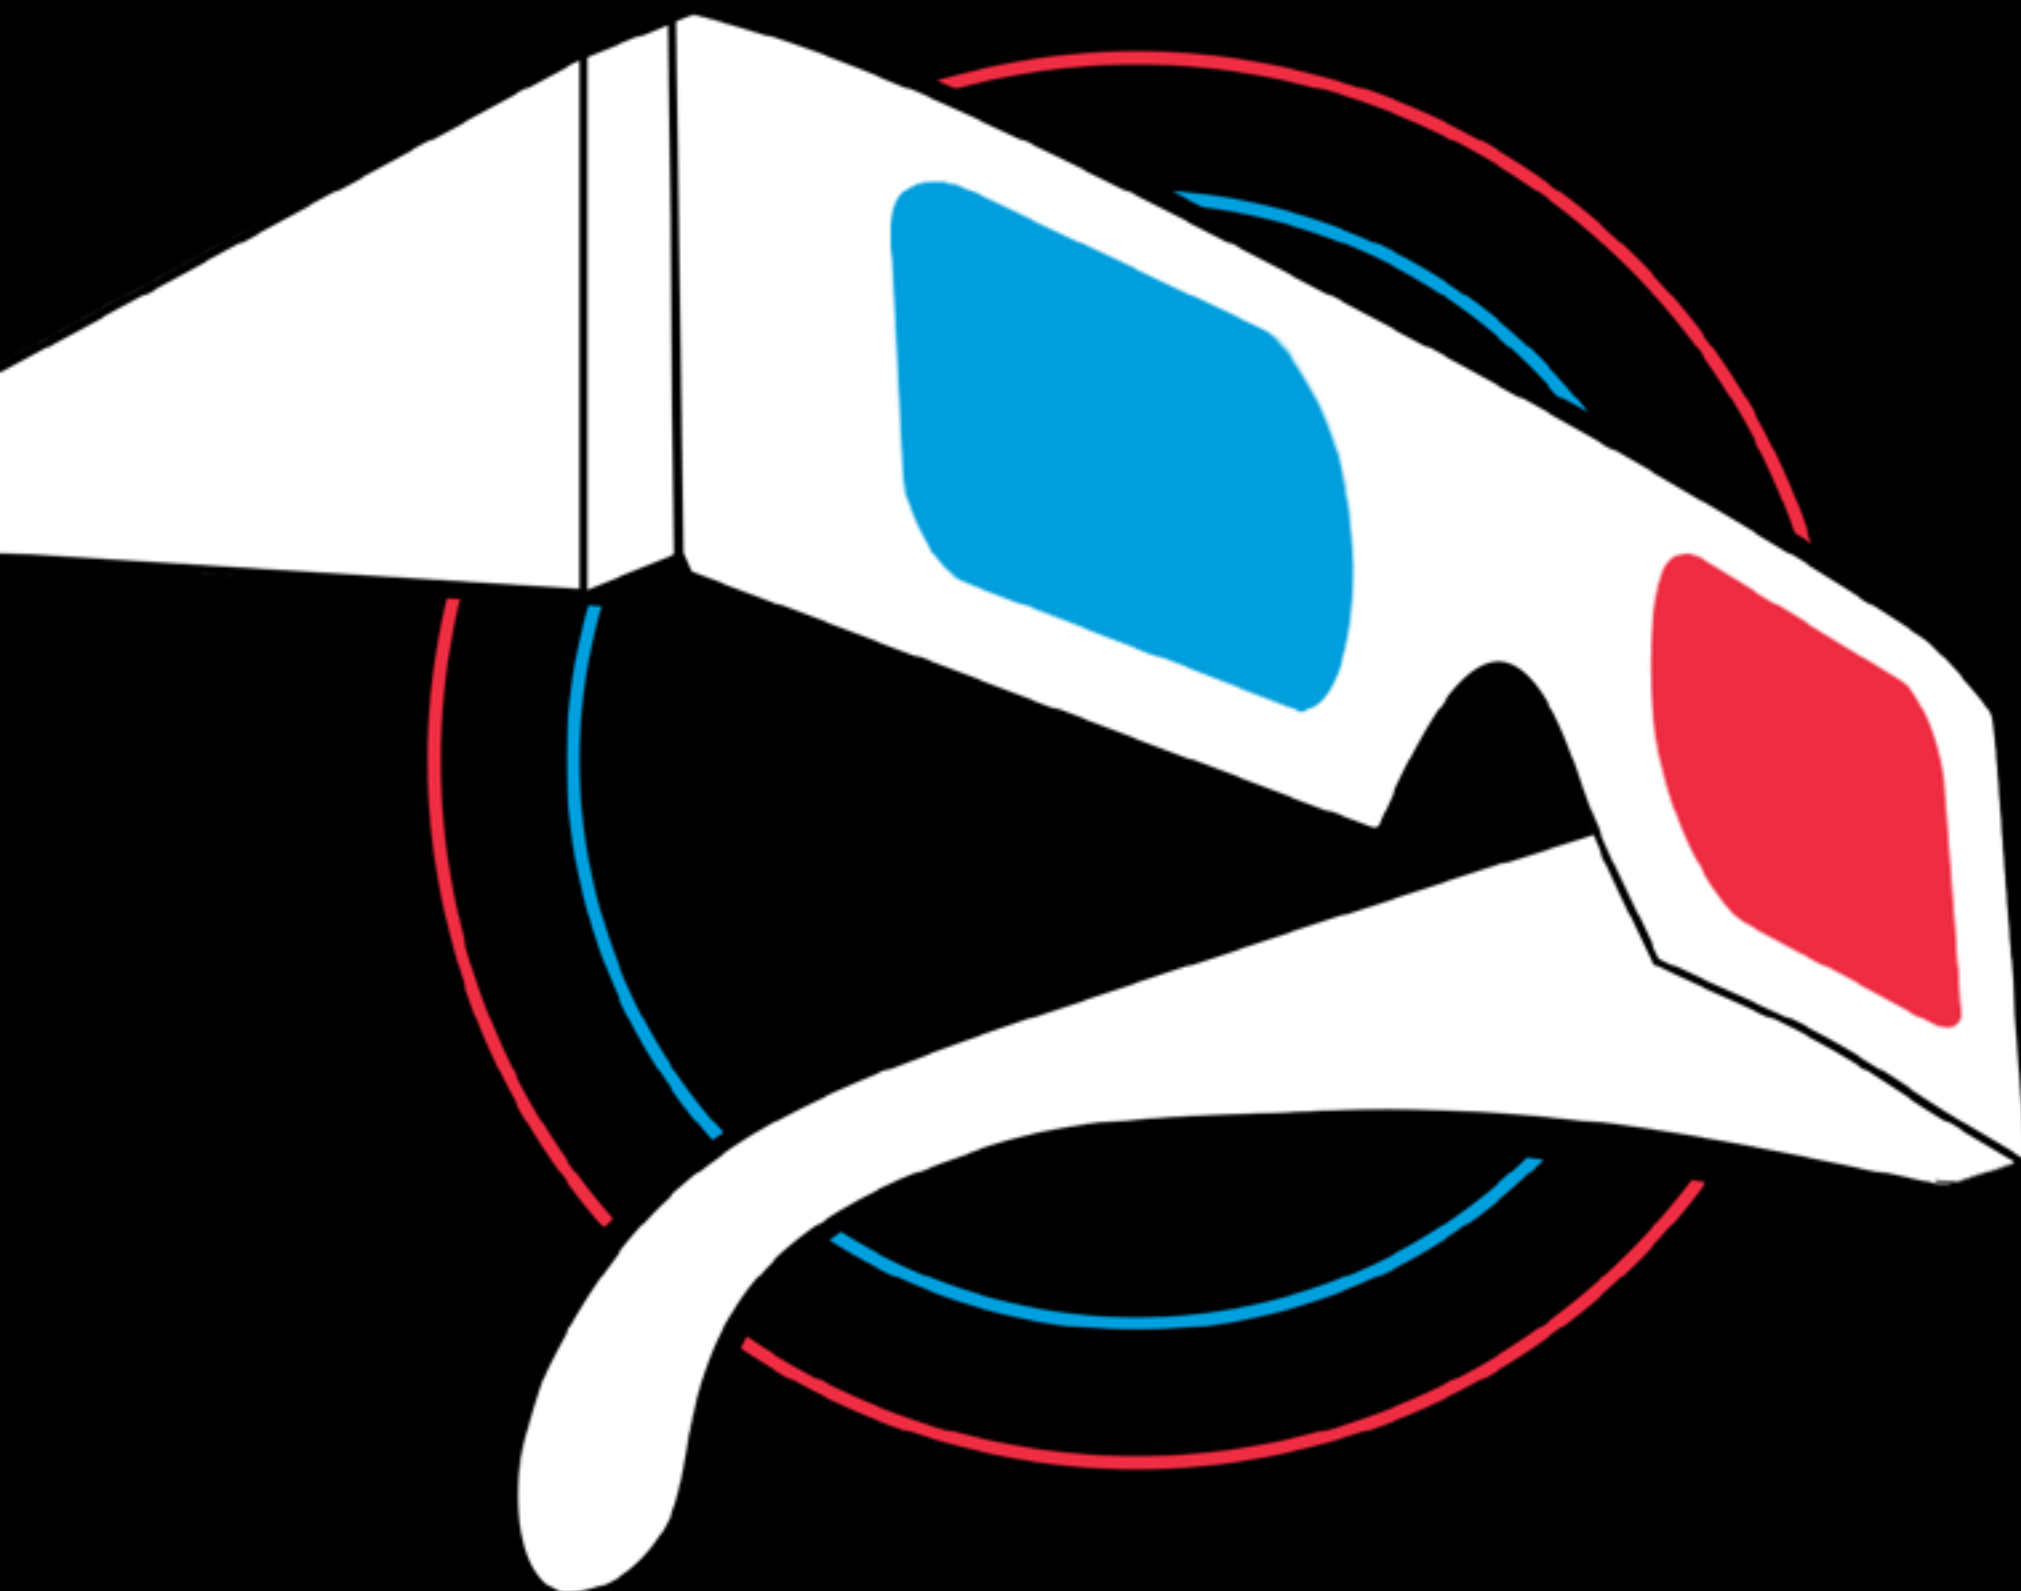

And just when you thought that I became predictable
I'd let you down
I am the person who you thought I was
I did exactly what you thought I would do

Lots To Say

I'm so turned around I can't see the truth behind you.
And now I see your reality is tainted.
You see all the misery all around now
And you wonder why everything's so upside down
'Cause you couldn't take it anymore
And you felt like it once again

I got lots I got lots I got lots
I got lots to say, don't come out right
Don't come out right, no It don't come out right

You see all the happiness all around now
And you wonder why everything's not upside down
'Cause we couldn't take it anymore
And we felt like it once again.

On My Own

Eyes shadowed, hands stained
The last nights mistakes being made
Staying late or is it early?
Proud to be on my way on my own

You think you're waiting well I wait too
You think you're bleeding well I bleed too

So much more to live for
So much more to think about
Where would you be what could you too
Would like to see more of this

You think you're waiting well I wait too
What am I really waiting for
You think you're bleeding well I bleed too
Something that we all just do
You think you're hoping well I hope too
Something that we all go through
You think you're wanting well I want too
All alone I say...
When will all this go away?
Can I please, can I stay
Don't leave...
